Interesting Meeting Last Sight Addresses by fitzetptes of a Growing Penternal and Beligious

Organization. About five years ago twelve young men of Chicago, members of the bible | Church, New York, Class of St. James' Churc's, came to the conclusion that they could do more for their church, in a broader fiel I of labor, if they but united their efforts, and, setting upon that bellef, formed "The Brotherhood of St. Amtrew."

The organization found immediate favor with the younger members of the church and grew rapidly, spreading from church to church, parish to parish, discare to discare, until now it has formed an endless chain of fraterof the Episcopal Church from one and of America to the other.

The membership has increased from twelve to over six thousand, and instead of one there are now upward of four hundred chapters, and others are con stantly being formed.

The young men of the Episcopal churches in Washington quickly fell in with the idea, and were greatly impressed by it, and soon-so quietly was it done that no one seems to know just now-there were established the Epiphany Chapter, St. Paul's Chapter and Ascension Chapter, and Herman K. Veile had been elected chairman of the ocal Council for this District, with P. B. Pierce director of Epiphany Chapter, William Kirkus of St. Paul's, and

James Batt of Ascension.
The members of the chapters here scem to have feared that not sufficient interest was being taken in the Brotherhood in Washington and that the aims and objects of the order were not sufficiently appreciated by the laity of the churches here, so arrangement were made for a meeting at which prominent members of the Brotherhood hould be present and deliver addresses under the auspices of the local council. This meeting was held in the chape of Epiphany Church last evening and its announcement proved such an at-traction for the members of the order, as well as those who are simply interested in the movement, that the hall was comfortably filled when Mr. Veile stepped upon the platform at the north end of the chapel and, as chairman of the local council, requested that the meeting come to order, whereupon he stated briefly that the meeting was for the purpose of increasing the interest in the order and to explain to those interested what it really was.

He said that a number of prominent gentlemen had been requested to ad-dress the meeting, but that Mesers. John A. Beard and G. Harry Davis had been the only gentlemen who had been able to accept the invitation; and read letters from Arch Deacon Moran, Rev. A. S. Lloyd of Norfolk, Va., and Henry A. Sill of the St. Andrew's Cross, all expressing the most sincere regret of the feability of the writer to be

A brief prayer was made by the Rev. Dr. McKim, rector of Epiphany, after which Mr. Velle introduced to the hearers a short, rather pleasant faced gentleman, whose mouth was consled by a luxuriant golden mustache, as Mr. John A. Beard of Philadelphia the first speaker of the evening.

Mr. Beard said he was greatly pleased to be able to be in attendance on the meeting, especially as he and Mr. Davis, who accompanied him, are people of the different parishes were croughly alive to the importance of It was a great brotherhood work. pleasure, he said, for him to look into the faces of so many who are ready and willing to work for the church.

Mr. Beard, continuing, sketched briefly the history of the order, and said its prime object was to spread Christ's kingdom among men. It was modeled upon two rules—the first that of prayer, the second of service. The second rule required that each young man becoming a member of the orde should labor to the best of his abliftles to induce some other man to attend church with him every Sunday during the year. This "rule of service," said Mr. Beard, seemed to be a great stumbling-block in the way of many who would like to join the Brotherhood for they say it is impossible to bring into the church fifty two men every year. "But," continued he, "nobody expects them to; it is well nigh an impossibility, and this we admit, but one can at least try, and that is all that is an earnest worker in the cause of the brotherhood. He has a bright, at-tractive way of talking, and such a clear insight into the workings of the order and a concise way of ex-plaining himself that all found a terrupted his remarks with applause. After acknowledging the reception given him and saying that it only served to show there did exist a fraternal feel-od, he went on to speak of the aims The normal condition of a christian. said he, "is work, and if he is not working there is something wrong; that can be put down as an axiom in the christian's life."

Mr. Davis then explained that in carsying out the sims of the order one was only doing what he had vowed to do when baptised and confirmed in the church as a faithful servant and soldier of Christ. He spoke of the recent con vention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew held in Phitadelphia, and asked if an attendance of 400 delegates, among the number being five Bishops of the church, assembled from all parts of the United States, did not mean semething—if it did not mean that the conservation of the Eniscopal Church was slowly giving way to a feeling that with the saity of the church its life lay "No man." said Mr. Davis, "is more loyal to his church than I, yet I thank tied that the feeling is growing in the Cuicago, Nov. 25.—General Miles and his assistants at Army Headquarters were highly elated this morning over the receipt of a dispatch from Pine Ridge Agency announcing that a large number of Indians had come in, fully one half of whom have been among the ghost dancers. Their abandonment of this craze is due to the influence and arguments of the loyal element among the redskins. This is regarded as highly encouraging and a general belief is expressed at headquarters that the flurry will very soon subside and quiet be restored.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Cases Appealed From the Police Court Engage His Honor's Attention. In the Criminal Court this morning ases on the docket appealed from the Police Court were taken up before Chief Justice Bingham. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dumont appeared the dead, and the little ones never knew for the District. Daniel Mshoney charged with keeping an uniformed bar was found not guilty by the jury. William C. Farquhar, charged with keeping an uniformed bar, failed to appear and his recognition of $300 was forfeited. Isaac Greenapple who is charged with obstructing walk also falled to appear and forfelted his recognition. Joseph Silas was to have been tried for keeping an un-licensed bar, but he falled to appear and his recognition was also forfeited.
The case of Northedge and Alkens charged with selling liquor without a license was called to the attention of the Court. The District did not desire to prosecute the firm since it was shown that they had been arrested before they were informed of the rejection of their application for a license. At the conclusion of these cases Gon eral Carrington, as counsel for William Wood, alias Ross, recently sentenced to the penitentiary for two years, filed a motion to retain the prisoner at the District juil until a petition to the Presi-dent for commutation of sentence has

EE THINKS WELL OF WOMEN.

A Graceful Tribute from the Gallant

Colonel Ingersoit. In a recent symposium on women Colonel Robert G. Ingersoil was asked to contribute his views. He replied as follows: "It takes a hundred men to make an encampment, but one woman can make a home. I not only admire woman as the most beautiful object ever created, but I reverence her as the redeeming glory of humanity, the sanct-uary of all the virtues, the pledge of all perfect qualities of heart and head. It is not just or right to lay the sics of men at the feet of women. It is because women are so much better than men that their faults are considered

The one thing in this world that is constant, the one peak that rises above all clouds, the one window in which he light forever burns, the one starthat darkness cannot quench, is woman's love. It rises to the greatest heights, it sinks to the lowest depths, it forgives the most cruel injuries. It is percunial of life, and grows in every climate. Neither coldness nor neglect, harshness nor cruelty, can extinguish it man's love is the perfume of the heart. This is the real love that subdues the earth; the love that has wrought all miracles of art; that gives us music al the way from the cradle song to the grand closing symphony that bears the soul away on wings of fire. A love that is greater than power, sweeter than life and stronger than death."
